

Mint of the United States at Philadelphia, Pa.,

SUPERINTENDENT'S OFFICE.

6th Aug. 1881.

Sir;

In view of the excessive heat and the prostration of many of the employes resulting therefrom the operations of the Mint will be closed to day at 12 O'clock

Very respectfully
London Gundry

William J. Steel Esq
 Acting Comr

NARA RG104, Entry 1, Box 124

Mint of the United States at Philadelphia, Pa.,
Superintendent's Office,
August 6, 1881

Sir;

In view of the excessive heat and the prostration of many of the employees resulting therefrom the operations of the Mint will be closed to day at 12 o'clock.

Very respectfully,
A. Loudon Snowden

William J. Steel Esq.
Acting Coiner